

Lesson 25 Homework

---

Write the answers to the questions on notebook paper.

Homework 1:

Read “Going for D-Day”.

1. Who was the American General in charge of the invasion of Normandy (D-Day)?
2. When did the invasion begin?
3. Which three countries provided troops for D-Day?
4. Who won the battle: the Allies or the Germans?

Homework 2:

Read “April in Georgia”.

1. Roosevelt and Churchill signed the Atlantic Charter. It gave countries the right to “self-determination”. What is “self-determination”?
2. Russia was fighting on the Allies’ side. What did Churchill and Roosevelt think of the Russian leader, Joseph Stalin?
3. How many times was Franklin D. Roosevelt elected President?
4. Remember from class: Who became President after the death of Mr. Roosevelt?

Homework 3:

Read “A Little Boy”.

1. Why did the President and his advisors decide to drop an atomic bomb on Japan?
2. What is the name of the plane that carried the bomb?
3. What was Captain William Parsons’ job on the plane?
4. From what distance could the people on the plane see the fire from the bomb after it exploded? (That’s about the same distance from here to Dallas.)

Hiroshima: Before and after the atom bomb

Nagasaki: Before and after the atom bomb

WRITING

During World War 2, several talented military generals lead the US forces. These men were some of the greatest military leaders in our history. Look up information online about General Dwight D. Eisenhower, General Douglas MacArthur, or General George S. Patton. Find out where they served and what they did during and after World War 2. Write a paragraph about one of these men.

General Eisenhower

General MacArthur

General Patton

OR

Write a letter of thanks to a person who is currently serving in the US military. A Million Thanks is an organization that encourages people to thank current service members by writing them a letter. If you write the letter, I will mail it to A Million Thanks. They will send your letter to someone who is currently on active duty. For more information and guidelines for your letter, go to <https://amillionthanks.org/letter/>

