

Lesson 5 Homework

Homework 1:

Read “Great Awakening”.

Write the answers to the questions on notebook paper.

1. What was the Great Awakening?
2. How did the Great Awakening change the way that people felt about how the law should treat all people?
3. The Great Awakening paved the way for what freedom of the American people?
4. Separation of church and state means that the government can’t control churches and churches can’t control the government. What is the name of the man who came up with this idea?

Homework 2:

Read “The French and Indian War”.

Write the answers to the questions on notebook paper.

1. When was the French and Indian War fought?
2. The British went to a French fort and told them to leave. What is the name of this fort?
3. What man led the first battle of the war and later become a famous hero?
4. How were the English soldiers different than the colonial soldiers?
5. What did the English army do to win the war?
6. List four important results of the French and Indian War.

Homework 3:

Read “A Taxing King”.

1. How did King George treat the colonists?
2. A London newspaper called Americans “mongrels”. What is a mongrel and why did we get called that name?
3. What did the king do to punish the colonists?
4. What does “no taxation without representation” mean?
5. What did King George do in 1765, that got the colonists incredibly angry?